

Which best describes your network?

Type of network	Level of Risk (to members) Systemic Change Potential	How they operate
Cooperating	LOW Little chance	Model best practices; test ideas and learn different approaches; convene problem-solving sessions
Coordinating	Low to Moderate Good chance	Push established organizational boundaries; engage in activities requiring greater mutual reliance
Collaborating	Moderate to High Best chance	Methods in place to resolve conflicts; pursuing long-term system creation; radical shifts from past operation; fundamental resource re-allocation

From Vandeventer, P., and M Mandell, 2007. Networks that Work